Protesters brace for confrontation with police at upcoming NATO summit in Chicago

The battle drums can already be heard in Chicago, as police and protestors plan for the NATO summit later this month.

"War is going to break out on the streets," one demonstrator excitedly told Fox News. "Big plans are being made."

It's anyone's guess whether such bluster is mere pre-protest posturing or the prelude to a serious confrontation. But Chicago is shaping up this month as the latest focal point in the debate over economic policy and the movement known as Occupy. (FOXNEWS)

OEMC Notification:

The Chicago Office of Emergency Management and Communications (OEMC) will activate the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) from 8:00 AM Friday May 18, 2012 to approximately 8:00 pm Monday May 21, 2012 (subject to change). The EOC is located within the OEMC at 1411 W. Madison and will be staffed 24 hours a day.

Most Recent Updates:

Israel Not Invited to NATO's Chicago Summit

- NATO has announced that Israel will not be invited to its May 20-21 summit in Chicago, but denied that alliance member Turkey blocked Israel's participation.
- News reports have claimed that Turkey blocked Israel's participation because of the raid in 2010 by Israeli troops on aid ships heading to Gaza during which eight Turks and a Turkish-American died.

Potential NSSE Related Graffiti:

Hanover Park PD passed graffiti images containing lit bomb design with anarchist "A" symbol.
